Denise (Byrd) Gangi currently runs the strategic planning process for Broadridge Financial Solutions. Denise also leads a number of strategic initiatives for Broadridge and is the chair of their Journal Square Women's Forum Chapter. Denise joined Broadridge in 2002 as a Senior Director in the Pricing Group; prior to her business development role, Denise was the Dividends Project Manager where she led the rewrite initiative directing a team located in Hyderabad, India.

Prior to joining Broadridge, Denise worked in business development at IBM Global Services where she had responsibility for financial deal structuring and contract negotiations. Denise received her Bachelor of Science degree in Systems Analysis from Miami University and MBA from The Wharton School of Business with dual concentrations in Finance and Strategy.

When Broadridge became a member of the Women's Bond Club in 2008, Denise joined the Corporate Outreach Committee acting as liaison to several corporate member firms. Denise was also active with the Merit Award Dinner table sales and the Diversity Round Table Planning Subcommittee. In 2011, Denise moved to the WBC Finance Committee to serve as Deputy Treasurer and is currently the Treasurer for the Women's Bond Club and also chairs the Finance Committee.
