

Tuesday, January 26, 2010
6:00 PM–9:00 PM

Venue 1633 Broadway — 36th Floor
New York, NY 10019

Event details Panel discussion from 6:00 PM–7:00 PM
Networking cocktail reception
from 7:00 PM–9:00 PM

Deloitte's Financial Services Practice, in conjunction with the Women's Bond Club, invites you to attend a panel discussion on The Future of Risk Management

Topics will include

- Lesson Learned from Credit Crisis and Upheaval in Capital Markets
- Impact of Changing Regulatory Landscape on Risk Management
- Integration of Risk Management into Business Operations
- Data Limitations and Impact on Risk Management
- Risk Governance Going Forward

Introductory speaker

- John Kocjan, Managing Director, Financial Services, Deloitte Consulting LLP
- Industry Market Trends and Implications for Risk Management

Panel discussion

- Moderator
 - Maria Dowd, Financial Services Chief of Staff and Nerve Center Leader, Deloitte Consulting LLP
- Panelists
 - Maria Berenguer, Co-Founding Partner, RiskEdge, Former CIO for Enterprise Risk Management, AIG
 - Edward Dumas, Head of Risk Solutions in North America, DST Global Solutions
 - Sandra Giuffre, Principal and Founder, Giuffre Associates, a firm specializing in risk transfer solutions
 - Thomas Rollauer, Director, Governance, Regulatory and Risk Services Practice, Deloitte & Touche LLP
 - Rhoda Woo, Managing Director, AERS Banking and Securities, Deloitte & Touche LLP

This event will also include a Dress for Success suit drive.

Event is only open to WBC members.
Space is limited. Please register for the event by January 15.